We should have reactions to the edits very shortly. Many of them are stylistic and fine, some of more concern.....

Vast majority of the other edits seem stylistic. At this point, I would recommend rejecting them all and keeping the docs as-is unless you and Aaron, cc'd, determine that a specific edit makes the documents substantively stronger.

Seems to be a new actor in the clearance process in Staff Secretary with substantial questions and changes to these proclamations. I had a brief conversation with May in Staff Sec office and expressed concern this is opening the door to much more back and forth with very little time. She understood the concern and said if need be we can let many of these comments and changes go. However your attention is needed- we should at least be responding to these comments. They are attached.
